

News Literacy – in a time of fake news

Programme

Lies, propaganda and false news have never had such great conditions for spreading as they have today. How do we understand and use media, how does it influence on us and our environment? Is news journalism the solution? Or rather a part of the problem? The purpose of the conference is to provide teachers with:

- academic input on how to deal with Fake News in schools
- to establish collaborative eTwinning-projects

Thursday 23th of november 2017

13.00 - 14.00	Get in & Registration
14.00 - 14.10	Welcome - Practical info and focus of the seminar
14.10 - 15.00	Presentation
15.00 - 15.30	ABC of eTwinning
15.30 - 16.00	Coffee and (check in)
16.00 - 17.00	“Fake News”. Virtual Live exercise – Intro by Aslak Gottlieb Is it quite true? Virtual Live exercise: The elements of this energizing team - exercise introduces a news literate blend of flipped classroom activities, collaborative online tools, the famous Danish author Hans Christian Andersen and the phenomenon of fake news.
17.10 - 19.45	Visit to the local Frederiksborg Castle . Guided tour.
20.00 -	Informal Dinner: Restaurant Leonora (right next to the castle)

Friday 24th of november 2017

Until 09.00	Breakfast
09.00 - 10.00	Keynote: Mads Vestergaard (M.A. in philosophy, University of Copenhagen):  Politics and media are flooded by distortions, delusions, forgettings and distortions of truth. We are invaded by populist tales, "alternative facts" and "fake news". It is now a fact that misinformation is something that one must actively relate to as a politician, as a journalist and as a citizen. But how do you do that?
10.00 - 10.20	Coffee
10.20 - 11.45	"Fake news" – Workshop with Aslak Gottlieb  Lack of confidence in news media and politicians continuously create headlines. As a junior citizen, you may get the impressions that fake news and lying politicians is rather the rule than the exception. In this workshop, we examine how teaching news literacy in an era of fake news can keep up a constructive yet critical approach to news media amongst the students. How to keep their faith in news, so to say.
11.45 - 12.45	Lunch
12.45 – 14.00	"Fake news" – Workshop continued & concluded.
14.00 - 14.30	Coffee
14.30 - 16.00	Project ideas and Partner finding
16.00 - 16.30	Project planning step by step
16.30 - 16.45	Break
16.45 - 17.15	More on eTwinning platform and tools in TwinSpace.
17.15 -	Time for planning in pairs
19.30	Dinner in hotel restaurant

Saturday 25 th of november 2017

Until 09.00	Breakfast. Checking out of rooms.
09.00 - 10.40	Project planning, continued. Registering projects on eTwinning Live
10.40 - 11.00	Coffee
11.00 - 12.15	Presentations of projects
12.15 – 12.30	Evaluation
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch [Lunch packets for early leavers]

\ After the seminar Mads Vestergaard will be offering an online feedback-process on all projects made at the seminar.*